

Resources for Flying Jayhawks

Johnson County Museum - <http://www.jocohistory.org/cdm/> - a search for <Olathe Naval Air Station> returns many articles and photographs, including:

- Olathe Naval Air Station: Sailors on the Plains – article about the history of ONAS - <http://www.jocohistory.org/cdm/singleitem/collection/alb/id/396/rec/1>
- The First Commander: Capt. D. W. Tomlinson – article on Captain Tomlinson, first commander of the base - <http://www.jocohistory.org/cdm/singleitem/collection/alb/id/398/rec/2>
- Olathe’s Navy Hill – article about homes built for ONAS personnel - <http://www.jocohistory.org/cdm/singleitem/collection/alb/id/247/rec/8>
- Promise and Fear in the 1950s – article about the Cold War in Johnson County - <http://www.jocohistory.org/cdm/singleitem/collection/alb/id/250/rec/85>
- Sunflower: War Arsenal on the Prairie - <http://www.jocohistory.org/cdm/singleitem/collection/alb/id/275/rec/1>

Read Kansas! – These lessons from the Kansas State Historical Society connect to this film:

- How World War II Changed Kansas - <http://www.kshs.org/p/read-kansas-middle-school-m-35-how-world-war-ii-changed-kansas/17607>
- Airplane Manufacturing in Kansas - <http://www.kshs.org/p/read-kansas-middle-level-m-32-airplane-manufacturing-in-kansas/15845>

Saving Our Stories – These interviews discuss the Olathe Naval Air Station:

Bill Kramer, Cliff Ball, Dan Ashlock, Mary Cochran, Nan Bohl, Robert Hughes, Robert Manning

Additional transcriptions from Saving Our Stories can be found at:

<http://www.olathehistoricalsociety.org/resources-links/17-resources/16-saving-our-stories>

Naval Air Stations in Kansas during World War II – article from Kansas Historical Quarterly
<https://www.kshs.org/p/kansas-historical-quarterly-naval-air-stations-in-kansas-during-world-war-ii/13277>