

Resources for I've Filled My Bill

A History of Johnson County by Ed Blair – this book, published in 1915, tells the history of Johnson County. It contains many first-hand accounts of Quantrill's raid on Olathe, in addition to his raids on many of the other communities in Johnson County at that time. <http://www.kancoll.org/books/blair/>

Read Kansas! – there are several lesson plans related to territorial Kansas, including these:

- The Civil War Comes to Kansas: Quantrill's Raid on Lawrence - <http://kshs.org/p/m-16-the-civil-war-comes-to-kansas-quantrill-s-raid-on-lawrence/17325>
- The Civil War Comes to Kansas: The Battle of Mine Creek - <http://kshs.org/p/read-kansas-middle-school-m-17-civil-war-comes-to-kansas-the-battle-of-mine-creek/15363>
- Territorial Characters - <http://kshs.org/p/read-kansas-middle-school-m-14-territorial-characters/14902>

Territorial Kansas Online – for information on events leading up to the Civil War in Kansas - <http://www.territorialkansasonline.org/>

Kansas Memory – this online archives has many items related to Quantrill, especially his raid on Lawrence in 1863. Once on the website, do a search for Quantrill – <http://www.kansasmemory.org>

- Harper's Weekly illustration of the raid on Lawrence - <http://www.kansasmemory.org/item/208418>
- H.M. Simpson to Hiram Hill letter written in 1863 about the raid on Lawrence - <http://www.kansasmemory.org/item/213271>
- B. T. Babbitt letter to Governor Carney offering donations to victims of Quantrill's raid on Lawrence - <http://www.kansasmemory.org/item/213229>

Quantrill's Flag - <https://www.kshs.org/kansapedia/quantrill-s-flag/10154>